

COMPUTER DESKS

The New Central Library will expand the number of computers that will be available to the public. Public computers will be located on floors 2 through 6, in addition to a Computer Lab on the first level. These computers will be connected to the Internet and also offer Microsoft Office products. All computers will be accessible during the hours that Central Library is open.

The computer tables are spacious and will include a frosted screen between each row of PCs.

